

England's World Centres

~ History ~

The first Centre in England, Our Ark, was opened in 1939. In 1963 the name was change to Olave House. All buildings have offered a home to girl guides and girls scouts studying, working or passing through London.

Our Ark

This was the second building used for the World Centre. It was closed and sold in 1989.

Our Ark Cloth

Badge from Olave House - 1987